Description

This modern high quality villa with an exclusive architectural design is situated in the privileged residential area of Racó de Galeno. The finish in concrete and natural stone on interior and exterior walls endows this magnificent property with a unique charm, resting at the rear on the existing ground level and, at the front, on two huge beams that form a "V" shape. , a very spacious and bright living room with floor to ceiling glass windows on both sides of the room, providing it with an extra special luminosity, an American kitchen perfectly integrated into the dining area, a guest toilet and a laundry room. A staircase guides us from the generous entrance hall to the lower level, where we can enjoy the large terraces with the spectacular natural lagoon-like pool. A garage features parking space for 2 vehicles. The avant-garde design and the unique layout around the impressive central patio leave no one indifferent.
