4 bedroom Townhouse in Pego

Pego, Alicante, Spain

325.000 €

Ref: 719918

Description

4-bedroom duplex in the heart of Pego with easy walking distance to shops and restaurants. Beautiful light modern, townhouse which has everything you would want for town living.

This charming property is deceptively spacious, with 4 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, a guest apartment and garage. The property is ready to move into. On the main floor, the living spaces are open plan and filled with natural light. There is a generous sized, living room with wood burner and a feature open staircase with decorative ironwork from the living room you have access a guest bathroom with shower and then superb open plan kitchen diner with patio doors leading out to a large patio which gives you a second eating area for the summer evenings and also has retractable awning, there is also steps that lead down to a small fenced in garden and also a community garden.

On the second floor you have three large double bedrooms with large family bathroom with bath, all bedrooms have fitted wardrobes and all have patio doors to access terraces.

From the main floor you have access to the garage through an internal staircase. The garage has been converted into work shop/ hobby room and also has guest apartment but still giving you space to park the car if wanted.

The property is in excellent condition, filled with natural light and sits on the end of the block. The location is perfect for someone who is looking to live in a town community, where you have all amenities for your daily living within easy walking distance and only 25 minutes for the costal town of Denia.

This is a super family or holiday home and this property must be viewed to be fully appreciate the property.
